

Integro creates divisions

NEW YORK-based brokerage Integro has established four new divisions with one focusing exclusively on Canada. The Canadian operations are led by chairman Robert Dunn and president Mark Rankin with offices in Toronto, Montreal and Vancouver. It has other divisions for the U.S., U.K./international reinsurance and U.K. specialty lines.

Published by Thompson's World Insurance News, February 13th, 2012