These brand guidelines are designed to help you understand how to bring the Lloyd’s brand to life in your communications.

Why is it important to apply these guidelines?
The Lloyd’s brand is our most powerful asset. Using it correctly helps to ensure it remains recognisable, consistent across the world, and retains its value.

Using it incorrectly or inappropriately can mislead customers, and dilute its value. When using the Lloyd’s name or logos, the most important consideration is making sure that the customer understands exactly who is insuring their risk.

If you would like any further information or advice about the Lloyd’s brand, please contact marketing@lloyds.com.

Legal Notice
These guidelines do not address local insurance regulatory requirements, including advertising restrictions and prohibitions, which may be imposed in some jurisdictions (including the US), on market participants, capital providers and others.

Certain uses of the Lloyd’s name and/or Lloyd’s logos which might be permissible under these general guidelines might nevertheless constitute a violation of local law. You should take your own advice as to the legal and regulatory requirements that may apply. Please contact LITA@lloyds.com if you would like further guidance.
Who are these guidelines for?
Approved Lloyd’s brokers.

How do we write about Lloyd’s and also our relationship with Lloyd’s?
